THE INNER LEADER MOVEMENT

Overview

The Inner Leader Movement is an intuitive, evolutionary process helping you access your true inner leader propelled by heart's intuition and soul's wisdom. This evolutionary process includes coaching, mentoring and intuitive transmissions with your spiritual coach, Angel intuitive and master teacher, Lisa A. Clayton.

Your inner leader's compass guides you to your inner power of courage and confidence with strong connections to your Divine Team fully activating your spiritual gifts and resources.

Understanding and trusting your intuition along with claiming your true essence can create success in your world and establish relationships that are meaningful, abundant and fulfilling; bringing you to an alignment with your bigger spiritual gifts and life mission you are here to contribute and experience.

"Instead of 'finding yourself' the Inner Leader Movement is about 'knowing and evolving yourself'." ~Lisa A. Clayton

How do you get to the essence of the true AWE in you?

It all starts within the heart! Navigating life and creating a coherent flow requires an upgrade in "inner leader guidance and inner technology of the heart." Inner heart technology has two operating systems of heart intelligence and intuition which reveals your true essence. Your heart is the activator for your soul's knowing and wisdom.

The Inner Leader Movement brings forth your unique gifts aligned with your heart intelligence and intuition by connecting, learning and expanding in three dimensions: Above, Within and Earth-below (AWE).

The AWE-You energy circuitry and evolutionary methodology creates an alignment and flow that brings greater harmony, joy, happiness and success by accessing and trusting your inner leader daily.

ABOVE: Connect with Higher Heart Intuition: Sparking intuition through higher heart activation and raising your spiritual vibration will help you hold a new reality and manifest it quickly. Opening your heart to receive Divine dimensional energy and guidance creates a new foundation of trust.

WITHIN: Learn Heart's Intuitive Intelligence: Integrating proven heart-focused techniques along with guided learning methods to explore uncharted heart qualities and wisdom chambers unlocks unknown potential. Utilizing the power of emotions and deepening your heart core values rewires your internal circuitry for the “release and receive” energy which opens up heart’s intuitive intelligence as you make changes and upgrade your life.

EARTH-Below: Expand Heart Healing: Chakra energy alignments with imprint upgrades and your own nature spirit-being integrations will take you deeper into your inner power to “heal and seal” grief, sabotage, loss and fear that will come up as you make changes for a new earth journey. Manifestation happens when you are clear and open by increasing heart-healing abilities that will attract experiences, opportunities, connections and compensation in your life.
